Question:	P1041 – Removal of Country of Origin Labelling Requirements This is a disgrace, I DO NOT want food from China, Vietnam, USA, Thailand, etc.. where food standards are not up to Australian levels. I want to know how much and or what part of the food is from where. Current food products often have misleading and unacceptable labels. such as fish "made from local and imported ingredients" (what is imported the fish the crumbs? Packed in Australia is also misleading. There is a reason why the government wants clearer labels, its because the super markets are playing dirty games and bankrupting local growers and suppliers in the process. Reconstituted meat/Irradiated food/ GM food needs to be clearly identified also.
