Hi [REDACTED]

Are you aware of the case in the High Court in relation to the EPA's decision on a 'new' form on GM food? This article refers: <http://www.stuff.co.nz/dominion-post/comment/columnists/9362131/Workaround-could-be-exporters-death-knell>

Is this something on FSANZ's radar and is there any relevance to food safety assessments for GM foods?

Kind regards
