Hi [REDACTED]

Here's another piece of the puzzle:

Thanks [REDACTED], it's reassuring to know there aren't any big surprises coming!

Yousers – that's quite a headline! Nothing is afoot over here that you guys are not already aware of – a bit of creative journalism I think. I don't think the timing of Marion's interview was in any way connected to the FOI request and release of the documents.

Hi [REDACTED]

A colleague pointed this news article out to me this morning:
<http://www.abc.net.au/news/2015-12-17/aust-food-regulator-deliberating-over-new-gm-techniques/7033808>

Although I can't see any new information in the quotes from Marion, the headline got me wondering whether there's something in the works on new technologies at your end or if this is off the back of the FOI release.

If you're able to share any ideas I'd really appreciate it.

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]
